HOGGING OFF CORN

The time to turn hogs in on corn for hogging off is when the corn begins to harden and dent. Use a temporary cross fence and put up about 15 hogs to the acre.

As an area is cleaned up, move the hogs to another similar area, and turn in dry sows and pigs to salvage the FROM SAME SCHOOL grain that it left.

Feeding a protein supplement will ave a lot of corn. Feed the supplement free choice as long as plenty of corn is available. In corn that has heavy forage of soybeans with it, hold off on the supplement until this forage is cleaned up. When the corn supply gets short, hand feed hogs around one-fourth pound of protein supplement per head daily.

Before turning in hogs, it may be necessary to make a turn around the field with a disc to knock down some

"The history of medical science, he says, "shows that the great forward leaps in knowledge have come through fundamental studies of biolo-

Basic reasearch of this sort proceeds slowly, laboriously, with no assurance that it will succeed and requiring years, frequently decades, for its completion.' Yet it "provides the stuff of which progress is made."

Among other examples, Mr. Cabot cites the discovery of penicillin and the isolation of cortisone through basic studies, which could then be followed up with large scale tests of their effectiveness against different di-

"Basic and applied research are related aspects of the total investigative process, each making different contributions but both, together, forming the continuously advancing front of knowledge about health and disease,

Cabot adds.

Cabot is also concerned in his book with the questions: How can an atmosphere be created in which heart esearch is most likely to move forward rapidly In reply, he cites the pattern of support for cardiovascular esearch developed by the American Heart Association through its grants-in aid, fellowships, established investi gatorships, and its recently established Career Investigatorships which assure certain selected scientists of lifetime support, permitting them to follow heir own indeas freely and without

SENIORITY EXPERIENCE

"In the Senate, seniority and experience count for everything. I am 14th now among 96 senators. This seniority is an investment by Mississippi. It is high because you honored me by electing me senator when I was only 37 years old. I hold memberships on the vital agriculture and judiciary committees. These key positions will enable me to be of even greater service to Mississippi in the future. In my judgment, a record of achievement is more important that a platform of high-sounding promises." —JIM EASTLAND

Subscription Contest Details of the Final Count

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of votes and subscriptions turned in by each individual contestant during this—the final week of the big "Everybody Wins" prize subscription contest—the race will be brought to an end with a sealed ballot box, which prevents any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

Monday Morning, August 2nd, the sealed ballot box was placed in vaults of the Merchants Bank and Trust Co. of Bay St. Louis, after which time and at this place contestants themselves will place their final collections and accumulated "Reserve Votes" in special envelopes provided for this purpose.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: All subscriptions placed in sealed ballot box must be accompanied by full amount to cover in the form of cash. However, personal checks or money orders not to exceed $9.00 will be accepted and votes issued thereon in favor of individual contestants, providing no two checks or money orders are signed by the same party. This ruling is made in fairness to all contestants and will be adhered to strictly.

AN INVITATION TO CONTEST JUDGES

Members of the Advisory Board, announced in the beginning of contest are requested to be present at Merchants Bank and Trust Co. office shortly before closing hours of race—12 noon Saturday, August 7th—for a few simple instructions before making final count and naming winners.

At the stroke of 12:00 o'clock, the contest judges will take charge of sealed box, the seal will be broken and the contents of box counted and checked.

There will be no waiting or unnecessary formalities, but simply a matter of adding any and all reserve votes and votes due on subscriptions contained in box to the last published vote figures.

It will probably require about an hour's time to count findings in box and determine grand vote totals. Winners will be announced immediately by the judges and official vote count will be published in the next issue of the Hancock County Eagle.

VETERANS! Keep Jim the Job IN WASHINGTON!

Here's How Jim Eastland Has Worked For You

Legislation for Veterans:

- * The Senator has a letter from Miles D Kennedy, director of the American Legion, National Legislative Commission, Washington, D C. The letter, dated April 20, 1951, is reproduced
- * Senator Eastland was sole author of the Soldiers Vote Bill in 1943, to permit soldiers to vote absentee ballots in all elections. Until Eastland's measure passed, soldiers could only vote in presidential elections.

- * Senator Eastland was one of the authors of the GI Bill of Rights, which granted untold benefits to veterans for education, agriculture training, on the job training, etc.
- * Senator Eastland lought for increased appropriations for Veterans Hospitals and vigorously opposed attempts in recent years to drastically curtail the

* Senator Eastland was the sole author of an amendment to exempt any soldier up to rank of captain from filing or paying income tax while in service. The bill as it was finally passed was a compromise exempting from federal income taxation the first $1800 of a soldier's pay. Prior to passage of this hill, even a PFC had been required to file a return and pay a tax.

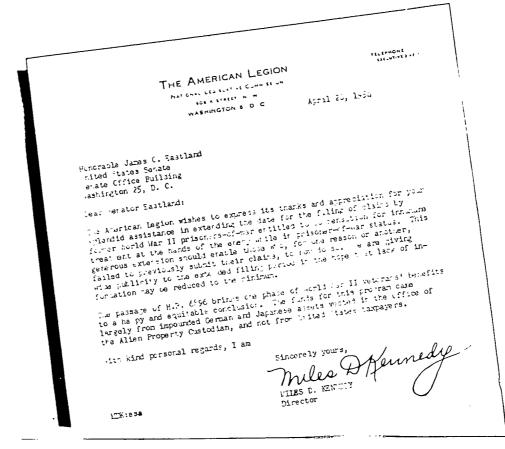

¥ Senator Eastland introduced a bill to continue a soldier's pay for six months after he left the service. His bill led directly to passage of the measure providing for severance pay for Armed Services members at the time of their discharge.

★ Senator Eastland voted to liberalize the pensions of all veterans and has at all times fought for a high level of hospitalization for all war veterans.

* Senator Eastland during his 12 years in the Senate has worked closely with the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the fight of Communism through his membership on the Internal Security Committee.

Boys Nation President Is Honored

Young Edward S. Perry, who won national acclaim last week when he was elected President of Boys Nation in Washington, returned Friday night by plane to New Orleans, where he was greeted with fanfare by a delegation from Mississippi and New Orleans. Television and motion picture cameras as well as newspaper representa-A parade was staged in his honor Saturday, which had officially been proclaimed "Ted Perry Day" by Mayor Scafide. He was presented a Key to An all-girl band from Sacred Heart School in Bilow led the parade.

Monday a luncheon honoring Perry was given at Hotel Reed. The public and the Baptist Youth Council, of which young Perry is an active member. Pere LeDuc Council, Knights of Columbus, entertained at a banquet at K. C. Hall Monday night. During the banquet, Brother Linus, Vice President of St. Stanislaus, was presented by George Heitzmann, Grand Knight.

Brother Linus spoke on young Perry's accomplishments as a student at St. Stanislaus, where he will be a senior in the fall.

Brother Linus said the school felt extremely proud of Perry's having been chosen to serve in the highest office in boys nation. Perry said he would be forever grateful to the Knights of Columbus for having sponsored him to Boys State, making it possible for him to be elected President of Boys Nation. Perry compared the principles of Columbianism to those taught at Boys Nation. "Charity, Unity, Patriotism taught by each group" Perry said. The banquet ended with a prayer by Father John Robinson. Tuesday night Perry spoke to Legionnaires of Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, which he represented at Boys
